

Make the Season Bright:

Working with Advent & the Sacred Nights of Winter

Saturday, November 12th - 9:30am to 2:30pm

Discover the Mystery of this Season as:

- ★ Support for you and your family
- ★ Prophecy for the coming year
- ★ Regeneration and rejuvenation
- ★ An opportunity to find balance
- ★ Profound insight & inner reflection
- ★ Seed planting for the future
- ★ Sustenance for the year ahead

Join Others Who've Made the Season Bright:

Kim conducted a wonderful Sacred Nights of Winter workshop that explored the season's spiritual roots. She offered many suggestions for parents on how to make this time of year more meaningful for their children, as well as suggestions on how adults can experience deeper meaning. I came home inspired and with the anticipation to live this blessed holiday season with greater attention and mindfulness."

~ Helene Macdonald

"Kim's Sacred Nights of Winter workshop was fabulous! It was very helpful for parents trying to do the holidays differently than the hustle and bustle we are used to. The nourishing meal she provided was yummy too!"

~ Jennifer P.

In this workshop, you'll receive tools, handouts, guidance and inspiration to make the sacred nights of winter a powerful and nourishing experience for your soul and your family.

Location: 369 Orange Drive in Boulder Meadows, North Boulder

Fee: $75 - Includes Nourishing Soup for Lunch

Register: by Nov 9, Kim Marie at 303-443-1617, or Kim@KimMarieCoaching.com

Your Host: Kim Marie is a Lifestyle Coach committed to supporting parents in their efforts to raise the future generations with empowerment, wisdom and love. Her programs and courses support a return to the wisdom of the Divine Feminine, and nurture the soul's journey of remembering, reconnecting, re-envisioning and rebirthing for the sake of a new future. She offers weekly writing and inspiration through her blog at KimMarieCoaching.com.